At Ellie we also understand that fashion and good music go hand in hand. Because we strive to stay involved with the community we love, we will be participating in the upcoming music festival here in Auburn. We will be sponsoring local band New York State of Mind, and setting up a booth that will offer our accessories as well as New York State of Mind merchandise.

Please join us on June 8th, 2007 for the Auburn Rock Fest. Good music, good fun and cool products will be available for everyone!
